

Who runs the course?

The course is organised by Go Wild Go West in conjunction with Adventurous Spirit. The training will be provided by Tim Haynes of Adventurous Spirit. Tim holds the Mountain Training Summer Mountain Leader qualification, has a current First Aid Certificate and is fully insured.

Weather:

We could experience any weather on the course so please make sure you read the kit list carefully. Courses will not normally be postponed due to bad weather; we will review the forecast the evening before and make the best of what we are given on the day, so please be prepared accordingly. For health & safety reasons, we reserve the right not to take anyone out who we consider inadequately clothed or equipped.

Photos:

We will often take photos during your course with a view to putting these onto our websites and/or Facebook pages. Please let us know if you do not want to appear in public and we shall ensure that any pictures of you are not included.

Insurance:

Between now and the course starting the unexpected can happen and so, particularly for our full day courses, we would encourage you to consider taking out some form of travel insurance to cover you should you need to cancel the course as you will be bound by our terms and conditions below. Here are several options that you may wish to consider:

Terms and conditions:

Subject to the provisions below, all course fees are non-refundable & non-transferable.

We do not offer alternative dates if you need to cancel the dates that you have booked.

Payment of the full course fee is required to secure your booking.

Your course fee is only returnable in the event of you informing Go Wild Go West of a cancellation with more than 4 weeks' notice prior to your course commencing.

A full refund of your course fee will be available should Go Wild Go West have to cancel the event for any reason.

If you cancel your course space with less than 4 weeks' notice we will only reimburse you the fee if we are able to re-sell the course space on your behalf.

You should ensure you are fully insured for your course to cover all cancellation, equipment loss or theft.

COVID-19: In the event that any future COVID-19 lockdown measures imposed by the English or Welsh governments should make it impossible for us to run your course lawfully, we shall cancel the event and provide a full refund of your course fee. We will be unable however to provide refunds to any individuals unable to attend a course due to self-isolation and would strongly encourage anyone booking with us to consider obtaining travel insurance which covers such a scenario.
